

Taking Fair Trade Further Lessons from Timor-Leste

A Seminar & Discussion with:

Professor Brett Inder, Centre for Development Economics, Monash University

Debra Salvagno, President of ETWA

Chaired by Katrina Langford, Timorlink

Saturday 17th May

3:00 - 5:00pm

Habitat Uniting Church

2 Minona Street Hawthorn

Brett and Debra will discuss their research findings & hands-on experience with fair trade projects and partnerships in Timor-Leste. These projects, in the coffee and traditional weaving sectors, empower passionate Timorese people to reduce poverty and build a sustainable economy. Key issues of fair trade and community empowerment will be explored in the seminar and discussion.

Presented by: timorlink.org

